Advice of the scholars concerning 'Iraaq

Shaykh Ahmad an-Najmee was asked: O Shaykh what is the position of the Muslims from that which occurred in 'Iraaq? And have you any advice for the Muslims in general and those living in the West specifically?

His response:

The reality is that this matter is saddening. And there is no power nor might except by Allaah. And the Muslims do not have any strength in their hands, and they do not have anything in their hands (at all). So there is nothing upon them except to supplicate for those weak o-nes who are being slaughtered. As for Saddaam Hussain, then he is a Socialist Ba'thist - and refuge is with Allaah and his creed is evil. However, he has harmed the Muslims, those who are being slaughtered for nothing they have done. So there is nothing upon them except to supplicate for them, and there is no doubt that supplication has its role (and effect), and Allaah, the Sublime and Exalted, is the o-ne in whose Hands all the affairs lie.
